TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

CLAUSE 1. QUOTATION AND DELIVERY

- In the absence of agreement to the contrary all orders shall be booked at the prices applying on the date of delivery and stated in the order confirmation (1) and subject to the reservation in terms of price as well as delivery that we shall not be liable for strikes, lockouts, etc., which are beyond our control.
- (2)Except as otherwise agreed in writing, the times of delivery stated are according to our best estimate, and subject unsold. If the Vendor concludes that the agreed time of delivery cannot be kept, or that a delay is likely to occur, the Purchaser will be so notified in writing - accompanied, as far as possible, by the time when delivery is expected to occur
- Where the Vendor finds himself unable to deliver the object sold in accordance with the agreed time of delivery or a time of delivery which has been (3) postponed in pursuance of (2) above, the Purchaser shall have the right to cancel the purchase.
- The Vendor's liability for such loss as the Purchaser may incur by reason of delays or non-delivery can never exceed the value of the shipment. (4)

CLAUSE 2. TECHNICAL DATA: PRODUCT INFORMATION, ETC.

All and any information stated in brochures, price lists, technical reports, etc., in respect of weight, dimensions, capacity, performance, and other technical data shall be for guidance only, and binding only to the extent that the Agreement explicitly refers to them.

CLAUSE 3. CONSTRUCTIONAL CHANGES

- The Vendor reserves the right, before delivery and without prior notice to the Purchaser, to undertake such changes in the design, execution, etc., as we (1) may find necessary.
- Such changes shall entitle the Purchaser to cancel the purchase only if he can prove that a specific design, execution, etc., was an assumption for the (2)purchase. The relevant changes and the associated cancellation shall not entitle the Purchaser to damages.

CLAUSE 4. PACKAGING

The prices stated in the quotation and any agreement are exclusive of packaging.

CLAUSE 5. TRANSFER OF RISK

Except as otherwise agreed the shipment is deemed to have been sold ex works. The Vendor will give the Purchaser appropriate notice to enable him to dispose over the shipment when it is ready for collection.

CLAUSE 6. PAYMENT

Except as otherwise agreed the Vendor's terms of payment are thirty (30) day settlement being 30 days from the last day of the month of purchase. (1)(2)If the Purchaser fails to make payments in due course, and the delay is not attributable to the Vendor, the Vendor shall have the right to charge late interest from the due date at a rate of interest equal to 5% above the official discount applying from time to time. The ship ment shall remain the Vendor's #### property until payment in full has been made. A bill of exchange or instrument of debt shall not be regarded as payment until redeemed in full. CLAUSE 7. MAKING-GOOD OF DEFECTS

- For a period of twelve (12) consecutive months after delivery to the initial consumer the Vendor agrees to undertake replacement delivery or repair at (1) his own option - when the shipment was attended by defects attributable to design, material or manufacture.
- The said making-good shall not include cases where defects were caused by the fact that the shipment was not maintained or was not used in complete (2) compliance with our instructions, or caused by faulty or inappropriate operation, modifications or technical intervention carried out without our consent in writing, or extraordinary climatic influence.
- Wearing parts are not embraced by the right to remedial action. The costs of installation and dismantling are not embraced by the right to remedial (3) action.
- Where the Purchaser wishes to complain about any defects, a complaint in writing must be made within eight (8) days following the date of delivery. The Vendor agrees to make good a defect immediately after having received a complaint about a defect that is deems to be embraced by this provision. (4)
- (5)If the Purchaser himself can perform the remedial action locally, the Vendor's obligation to make good under this provision shall be fulfilled when he (6) sends a new or repaired part.
- (7) If the Vendor is having defective shipments or parts returned to him with a view to replacement delivery or repair, the Purchaser shall in the absence of agreement to the contrary bear the costs and risk of transport.
- (8) When shipments or parts are sent to the Purchaser in the form of replacement delivery or as repaired parts, the associated transportation shall in the absence of agreement to the contrary be for the Vendor's account and risk.
- (9)
- Defective parts which have been replaced in pursuance of the above, shall be made available to the Vendor. The Vendor shall provide remedial action for such parts of the shipment as have been replaced or repaired on the same terms and subjects to the same (10)assumptions as the original delivery, except that the Vendor's duty to make good shall not apply to any part of the shipment beyond two (2) years counting from delivery to the Purchaser.
- After the risk for the shipment has passed to the Purchaser the Vendor accepts no liability for defects other than the obligations set forth above. The (11)Vendor thus disclaims liability for any such indirect loss - such as consequential losses or loss of time - as the defect may have caused the Purchaser.

CLAUSE 8. LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE TO PROPERTY CAUSED BY THE SHIPMENT - PRODUCT LIABILITY

- The Purchaser shall hold the Vendor harmless and indemnified to the extent that the Vendor may incur liability towards any third party for such damage and loss as the Vendor is not liable for towards the Purchaser in accordance with (2) and (3) of this Clause 8. (1) (2)
  - The Vendor shall not be liable for damage caused by equipment:
  - to real or personal property which occurs whilst the equipment is in the Purchaser's possession; or (a)
    - to products manufactured by the Purchaser or to products of which these form part, or for damage to real or personal property which is (b) caused by these products by reason of equipment.
  - In no event shall the Vendor be liable for consequential loss, loss of profits, or any other financial consequential loss. (3)
  - The said limitations of the Vendor's liability shall not apply where the Vendor is guilty of gross negligence. (4)
  - (5) If a third party makes a claim for damages against one of the parties in pursuance of this Clause, the relevant party shall forthwith notify the other party to that effect.
  - (6) The Vendor and the Purchaser mutually agree to allow themselves to be sued before the court of law or arbitration tribunal that hears a claim for damages made against one of them on the ground of a damage or loss allegedly caused by the equipment. However, the mutual relationship between the Purchaser and the Vendor shall always be settled at the venue defined in Clause 10 hereof.

- (2)
- On receipt of equipment found to be damaged, the supplier will notify the purchases within 24 hours and request direction. (3)
